

THE HOMESCHOOL PRESCHOOL CHEAT SHEET

Tried and true tips and tricks to keep you sane and organized

What Is The Homeschool Preschool Cheat Sheet?

The Homeschool Preschool Cheat Sheet is a quick read collection of all the tips and tricks I wished I knew when I started homeschooling my preschooler.

Each tip has an actionable item to bring you one step closer to an organized homeschool which allows you to prevent overwhelm. They are not meant to be done all at once but in stages.

They are also not in a particular order.

Before You Start Reading

Please note that I am assuming that you are:

- Serious or have started homeschooling your preschooler
- Have found out the rules in your area/ country
- Have already joined the Getting Rid of Homeschool Preschool \(Kindergarten\) Overwhelm group on Facebook
- Going to actually try the tasks laid out and will let me know if things improve

Tip #1: Set Rules for Your Homeschool

I know it seems odd that you would have rules for a homeschool but how else will your kids know what is expected? How will they know that they should take care of their tools or that they should be kind with each other?

- Set 4- 6 rules for your homeschool day. Keep them as simple as possible.
- If you are feeling creative, create a fun chart with these rules and say them daily.
- Share it in the FB group!

Tip #2: Have a Vision

Let's face it, people are going to ask why you chose to homeschool- so be prepared. Now you don't have to give a 10 page presentation but a simple 2 to 3 lines explaining why you do what you do is enough.

It also helps you get by when you have to teach your kid how to read or when you feel as if you want to quit.

- Create a vision for your homeschool
- If you are feeling brave, share it with a close friend or family member.
- Share it in the FB group!
